

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 28, 2015

2015 APPI PLANNING AWARDS

The APPI Planning Awards were announced at the 2015 APPI Conference, held recently in Edmonton. Each year the Alberta Professional Planners Institute recognizes exemplary planning within the planning profession. Awards acknowledge meritorious plans and projects, undertaken in whole or in part by members of the Institute, that significantly contribute to the livability of communities in Alberta, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut.

Award of Planning Merit

Comprehensive and Policy Plan Category

'Evolving Infill'

The City of Edmonton

Award of Planning Merit

Special Study Category

"Cochrane Community Revitalization Levy Area Plan"

Town of Cochrane

Urban Systems

Award of Planning Merit

Comprehensive and Policy Plan Category

'Parkland County Environmental Conservation Master Plan and Policy Updates'

Parkland County

O2 Planning + Design

Award of Planning Merit

Special Study Category

"Heritage Preservation Program"

City of Lacombe

Lacombe & District Historical Society

Donald Luxton & Associates

APPI is the professional institute that serves a membership of 900 private and public sector planners practicing in Alberta, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. We develop professional planners, promote the planning profession and advocate for sustainable community planning.