APPI's Mission: We are the face of the planning profession within Alberta, Northwest Territories, and Nunavut. We serve the public interest by providing regulation, advocacy, promotion and services for our members.

APPI's Values

We value ethical practice.

We value diversity.

We value resilient communities that support the wellbeing of their residents.

We value the public interest and believe in public participation in planning.

We value a fair and democratic process.

We value environmental integrity and social and economic sustainability for the wellbeing of future generations.

We value continuous learning of members for the benefit of communities and the profession.

APPI Professional Code of Practice: The APPI Professional Code of Practice sets out the professional standards of conduct and code of ethics of the Institute and its regulated members. The Code of Practice is a schedule of the Professional Planner Regulation and should be reviewed by all nominees for Council. The code is available for review at: Official Documents | Alberta Professional Planners Institute \(albertaplanners.com\)

Councillor Commitment and Expectations:

- APPI Council meets 4 – 5 times at various locations within the APPI jurisdiction or virtually, per Council term and a minimum attendance of 75% is expected.
- Travel and accommodation expenses are paid by APPI and typically arranged by the APPI office for in-person meetings.
- The success of APPI relies on active participation and leadership by all members of APPI Council.
