

APPI EXCEPTIONAL MENTOR AWARD

Josephine Duquette, RPP

Recognizing above and beyond support of Candidate members in their professional planning practice and competence.

Josephine was nominated for this award by Brent Dragon.

Josephine is committed and dedicated to developing emerging planners and she has guided many young planners through the RPP certification process. As a mentor, Josephine embraces a holistic approach. Whether it is making time to engage in planning discussions or encouraging colleagues to take on new challenges, she is there to provide support. As a professional planner, she is open to sharing her knowledge and expertise especially if there is a learning opportunity. Josephine has a talent for providing a unique perspective that challenges one's understanding of the profession while encouraging personal and professional growth.

On behalf of the Institute and Membership we congratulate Josephine Duquette as a recipient of the 2021 Exceptional Mentor Award!
