

APPI EXCEPTIONAL
MENTOR AWARD

JAMAL RAMJOHN, RPP

Recognizing above and beyond support of Candidate members in their professional planning practice and competence.

The first recipient of the Exceptional Mentor Award is Jamal Ramjohn. Jamal was nominated for this award by Stephen Utz and colleagues at City of Airdrie.

Excellence and professionalism require nurturing by an exceptional and committed mentor. Jamal has been that nurturing mentor to countless members of the Institute.

Jamal begins mentoring at the student level and continues the process career long, demonstrating his commitment to the growth of both the individual practitioner, the profession and the Institute. Jamal believes in creating and enhancing a professional network that he draws upon to share knowledge and best practices for the benefit of his community. Jamal is committed to providing ongoing guidance, support and encouragement to those journeying through the RPP certification process.

On behalf of the Institute and Membership we congratulate Jamal Ramjohn as a recipient of the 2021 Exceptional Mentor Award!
