FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – February 21, 2024

APPI Legacy Award

APPI is offering a monetary award to assist with the expenses incurred to:

1. Attend and present at a national or international conference (virtual or in-person): or
2. Undertake planning research and/or the documentation of planning research and sharing of that research. This award MAY be used to fulfill post-secondary requirements at the PhD level and postdoctoral student research, but not for an academic's research in the normal course of a position for which financial compensation is received.

Priority will be given to applications that advance excellence in planning and relate their presentation or research to Alberta, Nunavut, or the Northwest Territories.

Award winners will receive between $1,000 - $3,000.

Who can apply?

The Legacy Award is open to all Regulated members in good standing. Applicants may submit for both options but can only win one award.

The deadline for submissions is 3:00 PM Thursday, March 28, 2024.

For information on the submission details, the evaluation criteria and the online application form, click here Legacy Award | Alberta Professional Planners Institute \(albertaplanners.com\).

Use the online system to complete the Application form and upload all related files as specified.
