

August 7, 2025

APPI Call for Volunteers

Volunteer Opportunities with APPI - You can make a Difference!

Volunteering provides members with a unique opportunity to contribute to the Institute and the profession, while broadening their professional networks and acquiring new skills. Volunteering with APPI is eligible to be logged for the purposes of the reporting of mandatory Continuous Professional Learning (CPL), as it enhances professional competency. APPI has the following new volunteer opportunities available. For further information and details on all these opportunities Call for Volunteers | Alberta Professional Planners Institute

City of Calgary Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers required for consideration as APPI's Nominees to serve on the Calgary Planning Commission (CPC) - APPI has been invited to put forward non-binding nominations for appointments to the CPC. If you are a RPP and interested in being considered as an APPI nominee to serve on the CPC, please send an email to the APPI office at admin@albertaplanners.com confirming your interest and attach a cover letter, resume (of no more than two single-sided pages) and completed CPC Qualifications Form by August 22, 2025. To review the CPC Bylaw, which governs the CPC, and the CPC position description and qualifications form click HERE.

Volunteers required for consideration as APPI's Nominees to serve on the Calgary Urban Design Review Panel (CUDRP) - APPI has been invited to put forward non-binding nominations for appointments to the CUDRP. If you are a RPP and interested in being considered as an APPI nominee to serve on the CUDRP, please send an email to the APPI office at admin@albertaplanners.com confirming your interest and attach a cover letter, resume (of no more than two single-sided pages) and completed CUDRP Qualifications Form by August 22, 2025. To review the CUDRP's Terms of Reference (TOR) and the CUDRP's position description and qualifications form click HERE.

APPI thanks all interested members for their willingness to represent their professional institute on the CPC and the CUDRP. The City of Calgary and their Council has expressed a desire to receive multiple nominations for these positions. The final selection of appointees will be made by Calgary City Council

Professional Standards Board Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers required for consideration as APPI's nominees to serve on the Professional Education and Examination Committee (PEEC) and Accreditation Program Committee (ACP) of the Professional Standards Board (PSB) - If you are a RPP and interested in serving on either the PEEC or ACP, please send an email to the APPI office at admin@albertaplanners.com confirming your interest and attach a cover letter, and resume (of no more than two single-sided pages) by August 29, 2025.

Professional Standards Board (PSB) Additional Volunteer Opportunities - The PSB is always seeking volunteers to help in its certification and accreditation review activities. If you have been a RPP for a minimum of three years and are interested in serving as a Mentor or Sponsor of a Candidate member OR you have been a RPP for a minimum of seven years, and you are interested in serving on a Site Visit Team (SVT), conducting reviews of accredited planning program applications or regular reviews, or conducting Prior Learning Assessment Recognition (PLAR) reviews, please visit the PSB's Volunteer Page <https://psb-planningcanada.ca/contact/volunteer/>, or contact the PSB's Executive Director for more information at executivedirector@psb-planningcanada.ca.

APPI Volunteer Opportunities

APPI Regional Events Committees - The Regional Events Committees provide educational, professional and social opportunities for local members and to promote the planning profession within local communities. APPI is seeking members of any class, to assist in re-establishing APPI Regional Events Committees in Southern, Central or Northern Alberta or the Territories, and to lead those committees in seeking out content for local in-person events or webinar content relevant to the committee's region, in support of the membership's continuous professional learning, and with administrative support from the APPI staff. For more information, or to submit an expression of interest email, please email admin@albertaplanners.com by August 29, 2025.

APPI Nominating Committee – The Nominating Committee is responsible for securing a slate of eligible nominees for the election to Council and that all interested parties have the opportunity to put their names forward as potential nominees. If you are a RPP and would like more information and/or to submit an expression of interest email, please email admin@albertaplanners.com by August 29, 2025.

APPI is committed to equity and diversity in positions of influence and leadership within the Institute and welcomes responses to this call for volunteers from individuals who identify as First Nations, Inuit, Metis, LGBTQ2S+, persons with disabilities, women and other marginalized or disadvantaged groups. Members who practice and reside in rural communities are also encouraged to consider responding to this call for volunteers, as most meetings can be accommodated virtually.

APPI thanks all interested members for their willingness to represent their professional institute, however, depending upon the interest received, the final decision on the above nominees, where applicable, will be determined by APPI Council.

APPI Mission Statement

We are the face of the planning profession within Alberta, Northwest Territories and Nunavut.

We serve the public interest by providing regulation, advocacy, promotion and services for our members.

Alberta Professional Planners Institute
PO Box 3099
Sherwood Park, AB T8H 2T1
Canada

Phone: 780.435.8716
email: admin@albertaplanners.com

Manage Communication Preferences