

The third recipient of the Exceptional Mentor Award is Scott Mackie. Scott was co-nominated for this award by Fabio Coppola and Lilit Houlder, co-workers with Invistec Consulting Ltd.

Scott is deeply committed to the planning profession, continuous professional learning and the mentoring of others. During Scott's formal sessions with the Candidate members that he is mentoring, he focuses on the professional competencies for the planning profession and engages in dialogue for the purpose of expanding the Candidates' knowledge of professional planning practice. Scott takes responsibility for ensuring that his mentees meet, and exceed their professional development requirements, and he is always willing to share his vast knowledge in the areas of development, planning, transportation and municipal governance. Scott is always willing to sacrifice his time, share resources, adapt his schedule and to offer support and guidance on difficult projects.

On behalf of the Institute and Membership we congratulate Scott Mackie as a recipient of the 2021 Exceptional Mentor Award!
