APPI Strategic Plan

Perspective	Strategic Objective	Definition - What does it mean?	Why is this Objective Important?
STAKEHOLDER	S1 ADVANCE THE PLANNING PROFESSION	Move the profession and its members forward through recognition and credibility.	The public and the communities in which we live will be stronger since our voice will be heard. There will be a stronger desire to hire RPP's and there will be a much higher standard for planning. This will be good for our members, since having a higher profile will make it easier for them to get work done and it may result in advancing their career.
	S2 IMPROVE APPI CREDIBILITY & BRAND	The scope of practice for the planning professional will be clearly articulated, and the planning "brand" will be understood by the public. The integrity of planning will be at the same level as other professions.	This will result in the APPI and RPP having a stronger voice on regional and national issues that are important for the planning professions, including having a stronger trust from the public. There will be much more influence that members will have within their workplace and the communities in which they live. The reputation will be stronger with their employers and will result in more RPP's being required to fill planning jobs.
	S3 PURSUE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO PRACTICE	Plan and secure provincial and territorial legal recognition and right to licensure and right to work.	This will improve the quality and accountability of the planning profession, which will increase the public trust and safety. This will significantly advance the planning profession and will result in increased value to those having the RPP designation.
	S4 STRENGTHEN RELATIONSHIP WITH EMPLOYERS & GOVERNMENTS	Strengthen and leverage relationships with key employers and governments. This includes municipal, regional and provincial.	Building trust with these key stakeholder groups will significantly advance the planning profession and will help in achieving the ERT. This will grow the membership base and ensure the regulatory requirements are met. This will result in improving the credibility and public trust by having a higher level of competency and quality of the profession. Ultimately, having a larger and stronger membership base will advance the profession.
	I2 STRENGTHEN ADVOCACY	APPI will work towards have a stronger voice within Alberta, Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Specifically, APPI need to make public statement on issues that are important to the planning profession and will actively be involved in aspects affecting the Municipal Government Act (MGA). It will be important for the APPI to have clarity on what issues it will need to advance or advocate for/against and to ensure its members can support these issues and understand why it is important.	This will increase the influence that both APPI and RPP's will have with key stakeholders, which will ultimately improve the credibility and brand of the profession.
	I3 IMPROVED ENGAGEMENT BEYOND CALGARY & EDMONTON	We will make tangible improvements in engaging APPI members that work and reside outside of the two main centres of Calgary and Edmonton.	Members can provide strong input to the improvements to the profession, and to other members. They often move around the region, nationally, and internationally, so the members will benefit from the input provided by a diverse group. By increasing the engagement of all members, we will ensure that there is a stronger participation and value to APPI, its members, and the planning profession.
	I4 CREATE HIGH VALUE SERVICES FOR ALL MEMBERS	APPI must always ensure it is providing value added services to its members and that the value is provided and understood across all demographics and geographies.	This will increase member satisfaction and increase the engagement level, thereby leading to increased volunteering. It will also build a strong sense of community with members. Higher value services will increase the competency of the member.
	I5 FORGE & LEVERAGE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS	Forge new and leverage new and existing strategic partnerships to support APPI in achieving its strategic objectives. Partners can include service providers, vendors, educational institutions, other PTIA's, other professions, other associations, and CIP.
