

CITY OF EDMONTON CIVIC BOARD APPLICATIONS OPEN UNTIL JANUARY 15, 2023

Annually, City Council appoints members to serve on a number of City of Edmonton civic boards. Civic boards provide important input into City Council's decision-making and help shape the present and future direction of Edmonton. Joining a civic board is an exciting opportunity to use your expertise and unique perspectives to positively impact our city, as well as expand your network, grow skills and gain rewarding experience. The recruitment period is now open and we are looking to fill approximately 45 vacancies on 15 boards for appointment terms commencing May 1, 2023.

Skills and Experiences

Civic Boards are made up of dedicated Edmontonians with varied skills and experiences. City Council values a diversity of perspectives and appoints individuals of all backgrounds and circumstances to civic boards.

Boards Recruiting

The following boards are accepting applications:

- Accessibility Advisory Committee
- Anti-racism Advisory Committee
- Assessment Review Board
- Community Services Advisory Board
- Edmonton Combative Sports Commission
- Edmonton Design Committee
- Edmonton Historical Board
- Edmonton Public Library Board
- Edmonton Salutes Committee
- Edmonton Transit Service Advisory Board
- Energy Transition Climate Resilience Committee
- GEF Seniors Housing
- Naming Committee
- Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
- Women's Advocacy Voice of Edmonton Committee

Further Information

More information can be found at edmonton.ca/Boards. Should you have any questions, please contact 780-496-8178 or civic.agencies@edmonton.ca.